

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. We provide this notice to explain our online information practices and choices you can make regarding how your information is collected and used. John C. Campbell Folk School collects your mailing and billing information to process your online registration requests and online donations. We will use your contact information to confirm your registrations and/or donations. If you make an inquiry via our Contact Form, we will use your email address to reply to your inquiry.

We do not share or sell any part of the personal information that you have provided to us. Occasionally we will email you to inform you of special events, news, and class schedule information. If at any time, you decide that you do not want to receive emails from us, you can let us know by following the opt-out instructions at the end of each email. You can also notify us by email at info@folkschool.org.

If you submit a catalog request on our site, you will be included on our mailing list to receive a catalog twice a year for up to 2 years. If you would like to be removed from our mailing list you can do so in the following ways:

Write to us at John C. Campbell Folk School, 1 Folk School Rd., Brasstown, NC 28902

To ensure your personal security, this site uses 128-bit SSL encrypted transmissions between your Web browser and our Web server. This protects against the chance that someone (e.g. on your network at work or at your Internet service provider) may try to compromise your private information as it travels from your Web browser to our secure server. The Folk School does not store your credit card information and you will be required to provide that information for each transaction. Transmissions over the internet are never 100% secure or error-free. As a result, we do not, and cannot, guarantee the security, accuracy, or completeness of the Personal Information we gather from you. However we have implemented reasonable procedures to protect the confidentiality, security, and integrity of the information we receive from you.

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy at any time. Please check the Privacy Policy frequently and before you submit additional information on the website.
