Historical Note

Georg Bidstrup (1902-1971) and Marguerite Butler Bidstrup (1892-1982) were both influential figures in the founding and early years of John C. Campbell Folk School (JCCFS) in Brasstown, North Carolina.

Georg Lyster Bidstrup (1902-1971) was born in Denmark to a family that was involved with the Danish folk school movement. Georg first met Marguerite Butler and Olive Dame Campbell in the early 1920s during the pair's travels in Denmark to learn about the folk school movement. Georg then travelled to the United States in 1926 at the request of Butler and Campbell. He lived in the U.S. for the rest of his life. His first role at JCCFS was to manage the school farm as well as teach Danish folk dancing and gymnastics. Georg quickly became an important member of the Folk School community, and he married Marguerite Butler in 1936.

Marguerite Helen Butler (1892-1982) was born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio. After graduating from Vassar College in 1914, she worked at the Pine Mountain Settlement School in Harlan County, Kentucky, until 1922. Marguerite met Olive Dame Campbell at the 1919 Conference of Southern Mountain Workers. In 1922, Marguerite joined Olive on an extended trip to Scandinavia and England to study the folk school movement and folk dance. After their return, Marguerite travelled alone to Murphy, North Carolina, to determine if it would be a suitable location for an American folk school. Being met with considerable enthusiasm from the local community, Marguerite and Olive co-founded the John C. Campbell Folk School in Brasstown, North Carolina, in 1925. Marguerite served as an assistant to Olive, who was the first director of the school. Marguerite married Georg Bidstrup in 1936, and the two lived on or near school grounds for the rest of their lives.

The Bidstrups' life as a married couple was defined by their commitment to the running of the Folk School. Both Marguerite and Georg had a strong interest in folk dancing, and they shared this interest with the Folk School community through the management of the dance and music programs at the school. They also co-authored multiple books and pamphlets on folk music and dance. Georg became the director of JCCFS in 1952, a role he served until his and Marguerite's retirement in 1967. In 1970, Marguerite and Georg were joint recipients of the first Brown-Hudson Folklore Award, given by the North Carolina Folklore Society to those who had contributed to the appreciation, continuation, or study of North Carolina folk traditions. Georg died in 1971, and Marguerite died in 1982. The couple had no children, and their estate was inherited by their friends and fellow Danish immigrants Knud Øland (1921-1991) and Lissi Øland (d. 2016).

Scope and Contents

No information is known about how this collection was acquired by the Fain Archives.

The Awards series contains documents related to the Bidstups' receipt of the Brown-Hudson Folklore Award, as well as an Honorary Membership Award from the Southern Highland Handicraft Guild for Marguerite.

The Clippings series contains newspaper clippings from local and national publications. Some are about the Bidstrups themselves, while others are related to their interests such as folk dancing and music.

The Correspondence series makes up the bulk of the collection. The series includes both correspondence directed to Georg and/or Marguerite as well as copies of letters that they sent. Much of the correspondence in this collection is related to the management of JCCFS; although there are letters that are personal in nature, they are most often connected to official Folk School matters such as fundraising. There are few pieces of "true" personal correspondence in the collection; those interested in Marguerite's personal letters can look to the Marguerite Butler Bidstrup Papers (2024.14). Many of the letters in the collection are one of three types: letters of congratulations for Georg Bidstrup's appointment as Director of the Folk School in 1952; letters of condolence upon Olive Dame Campbell's death in 1954 (often accompanied by monetary contributions for the future of the Folk School); and further letters of congratulations upon the Bidstrups' retirement from formal involvement with JCCFS in 1967. Other common topics for letters include communication with major Folk School donors, such as the Matthews family; letters of thanks from former Folk School students; requests for information regarding the Bidstups' knowledge of folk dancing and music; and logistics and planning of events such as the Berea Christmas Country Dance School.

Events contains pamphlets and other materials related to folk dancing events the Bidstrups either attended or organized.

Folk Dance and Music includes a notebook belonging to Marguerite with handwritten musical notation of folk songs. It also includes loose handwritten notes by Marguerite on folk music and dance.

The Genealogy series consists of a single form that Marguerite filled out for the Vassar Alumnae Office's records in 1929. It contains some biographical information about the Butler family as well as Marguerite's activities before she married Georg.

The JCCFS series contains materials related to the functioning of John C. Campbell Folk School. A copy of the JCCFS Board's meeting notes from 1964 are included, as well as a form denoting Marguerite as Treasurer of the Board in 1942. Also included are lists of students from 1964 to 1966 and a 1943 stock certificate for five shares in the Mountain Valley Cooperative.

The Legal series is made up of the Bidstrups' personal legal documents. Items related to Georg's status in the U.S. are included, such as his 1927 Alien Certificate of Registration, his U.S. citizenship certificate from 1939, and various North Carolina driver's licenses. Marguerite and Georg's marriage license from April 16, 1936, is also included, as well as a copyright certificate for Singing Games and Folk Dances.

The Memorials series includes memorial documents created after Georg and Marguerite's deaths in 1971 and 1982, respectively.

Notebooks includes three of Marguerite's personal notebooks, which contain notes on various publications.

Oral History contains transcripts of oral histories given by Marguerite.

The Passports series contains Georg Bidstrup's passports from both Denmark and the United States.

Photographs includes a photograph of folk-dance performers in 1933 or 1934, an undated Christmas card, and an undated photograph of children from the Line Fork School associated with Pine Mountain Settlement School.

Publications contains books and pamphlets – both in English and in Danish – related to folk dance, folk music, and John C. Campbell Folk School. Folk Dances Brought from Denmark and 19 Folk Dances from Denmark were published by the Bidstrups themselves.

Miscellaneous contains materials that could not be sorted into another category. The two documents included are a transcript of a 1964 sermon given by Rev. Dr. Robert J. McCracken of the Riverside Church of New York and a copy of an unattributed "Prayer for the Golden Years."

Processing Information

This collection was processed by Travis Souther in October 2021. Transcripts and photocopies of selected correspondence (to Olive Dame Campbell in 1925 and to Jeannette [Jeannie] Butler in 1930 and 1933) were added by Susanna Pyatt in September 2024. While these non-original copies were found among the donation 2024.14, they were placed in 2021.6 because the original documents are in 2021.6. Processing was finalized and the finding aid created by Bridget Lewis in May-June 2025.
